*AMY HITE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
AMERICA'S KIDS RUN*

Amy Hite may be the newest face at America's Kids Run, but she's anything but new to running. She grabbed the passion early on, carrying her through fun runs, 10k's, half marathons and marathons. Now, she's excited to share that love for running with today's youth through America's Kids Run.

In 2012, Amy and her husband, Ryan, launched Negative Split, a running event company that now supports over 130 events across the Pacific Northwest. When she's not at the track or organizing races, Amy is busy cheering on her four kids at their own sporting events. Amy's enthusiasm and experience make her an inspiring leader at America's Kids Run, helping young runners find their stride just like she did.
